

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday September 28, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

State eyes uses for suit award

MDOT delays road projects

Students to enter debate over flag

Officials: Funds for financial aid safe

Curriculum gets F in evolution

Children's future just click away

Lott alters telecom stance

No word yet on gaming commissioner

Legislators question logic of MDA budget plan

Editorials

We need a new state flag for a new Mississippi, Eric Stringfellow

Legislators should allow governor power to do the job voters expect, David Hampton

Letters to the Editor

We elect leaders; why no flag vote?

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Witnesses say jail scam was covered up

Full story

Advisers prefer two highways over six lanes

State program puts careers up front

State works to preserve student aid

Natural gas supplier says bills will rise

Musgrove wants to get early handle on budget, Don Adderton

Editorial

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Yellow Creek fund woes latest frustration

Two troopers cited for outstanding work

State interrupts burning ban

Desoto Appeal Hernando, Mississippi

County farmers among those eligible for low-interest loans

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Lott announces contract for VA clinics

Who will champion for teacher raises?

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Highway commissioner visits Amite supervisors

Bill Minor: Zany character in flag feud

Jack Elliott: Winter won't dodge a challenge